ABOUT

Title: A little about me

Body:

I am a printmaker and designer with a deep passion for storytelling.

I hold a Bachelor of Science in Art Education and a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Printmaking from Illinois State University. With a strong foundation in both theory and practice, my creative process blends traditional techniques with contemporary design sensibilities. Whether through hand-pulled prints or digital compositions, I aim to spark connection, reflection, and the occasional laugh.

What I'm Into Right Now

So, I can't stop reading crappy regency novels. Not even the salacious, feminine-guilty-pleasure kind. Just short, one-dimensional, cookie-cutter Kindle Unlimited reads. They're awesome. If you've ever wondered how many times an author can get away with using the word "blushed" take your best guess and then multiply it by four. In truth, I'm using these stories to tide me over until Beth Brower releases book 9 of The Unselected Journals of Emma M. Lion.
